

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3424 - HB 3413

February 8, 2008

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes home school students to participate in extracurricular athletic activities of the public school in which they are eligible to attend.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

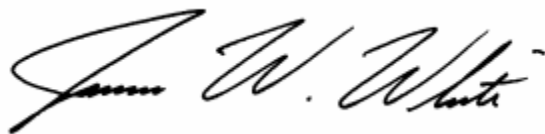

Increase Local Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- Home school students will pay participation or activity fees equal to those charged to public school athletes.
- Parents will pay health insurance costs.
- Fixed number of athletes per team. Home school students will compete for a team spot; they will not be automatically allowed to play. Local education agencies (LEAs) may incur a nominal cost for uniforms or equipment. Any cost incurred by state or local governments is estimated to be not significant.
- According to the Department of Education, some LEAs may already permit home school students living within their district to participate in regular public school extracurricular athletic activities.
